

The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia

"The Lawyers' Club provides the opportunity to form lasting friendships and interactions through dialogue and networking with members of the Bench and Bar."

-President Judge Sheila Woods-Skipper

"The Lawyers' Club provided an invaluable opportunity to become acquainted with a cross-section of practitioners, and the leaders of the bench and bar, in a collegial setting; and remains an unequalled value."

- Judge D. Webster Keogh

What is The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia?

The mission of The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia, founded in 1892, is to promote cordial relations and good fellowship between members of the bench and bar. The Lawyers' Club hosts three cocktail receptions a year for our distinguished judicial guests in a venue where bench and bar can socialize in a relaxed informal setting. One reception honors the judges of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and Municipal Court. Another reception is held honoring the judges of one or more Pennsylvania appellate courts. Another reception honors the judges of the federal bench, including the Eastern District, Third Circuit and Bankruptcy Court. These receptions present a special opportunity for attorneys to acquaint themselves with judges and to foster comradery with other attorneys.

The Aid Fund

The Aid Fund provides loans to members who are in dire need as a result of personal crisis. The Fund is administered with the greatest discretion and sensitivity. The Fund also makes an annual contribution to an organization that is providing assistance to legal professionals suffering from drug and alcohol addictions and mental health disorders.

The Lawyers' Club is extremely proud of this helping hand that reaches across the spectrum of practitioners and is consistent with our dedication to promoting mutual respect and caring.
